The Lawn

The expansive front lawn blends the classic landscaping of the manor with the natural beauty of a quaint brook and large pond. It is framed with mature trees that are waiting for lights, lanterns or whatever you have dreamed of having at your wedding. Beyond the pond are rolling hills that always has a beautiful sunset and rolling clouds. From this vantage point you can see only the lush green land and blue skies as there are no other properties in sight. The lawn is easily large enough for wedding and reception adjacent in celebration tent. Whether you have chairs in classic set-up or in amphitheater style for 180 degree view of the couple, the lawn is a perfectly serene spot for up to 300 guests. The beautiful arbor is a great focal point for all of your guest to enjoy the ceremony.

The Manor

On wedding days, the main floor of the manor may be used by the bride and her attendants to dress, relax and have pictures taken prior to the ceremony. The parlor exudes a soft neutral palette, a grand marble fireplace, and four large windows to allow abundant natural light to spill into the room. This view overlooks the lawn, allowing the bride a peak at what is awaiting. She will have her own room to dress and prepare in private before joining the bridesmaids.

The lower level of the manor has a more relaxed feel for the men to prepare for the big event. The casual space is designed to invite them to enjoy themselves with perhaps a game of pool or have a toast at the bar.

The charming manor sleeps up to 14 people with 6 full baths & 2 half baths. It has a fully stocked kitchen with pots, pans and dishes. It also plenty of games for you to enjoy during your stay. If you want to enjoy the outdoors there is a fire pit near the pond to enjoy while playing a game of corn hole.

Celebration Tent

During your reception, guests can celebrate with you in the comfort of a beautiful 40' x 120' white special event tent, complete with dance floor, chandeliers and cloth draped tables. This space will accommodate up to 300 with room for DJ, dancing and buffet tables. The sides of the tent can be open or closed. The celebration tent provides an elegant, weather-proof reception hall to eat, drink and dance the night away!

Tent may also be used as an alternative ceremony location with seating arranged to fit your request.

Wedding package includes tent, chairs, round tables, buffet tables and farmhouse rectangle tables.
